

A general subject museum with a permanent exhibition of the history of Ciutadella, from the prehistoric period to the Muslim period.

Small temporary exhibits on historical periods not covered by the permanent exhibition, aspects of anthropology and new collections that reach the museum and acquisitions are periodically put on.

It is worth pointing out that the municipal museum of Ciutadella is the depository for all archaeological material recovered from digs that take place within the city limits.

This institution also offers guided tours and a series of educational workshops for schoolchildren
