

The museum occupies part of the old engineering barracks of Es Castell. There are 15 show rooms exhibiting the military history of the island of Menorca. There is a magnificent collection of old canons on show and a complete collection of model Minorcan fortifications and ships of the period. The rooms of the XVIII century are also interesting, dedicated to the fortress of La Mola, with a splendid collection of original architectural plans and rooms containing engineering implements.

Address: 19, Explanada Square. Es Castell.

Telephone: 971 36 21 00

Governing body and management: Consortium of the Historical and Military Heritage of the Port of Maó – Es Castell