

This small museum found in the old part of Ciutadella is dedicated to the local painter José Torrent (Ciutadella 1904-1990). Here about one hundred of the most representative works from various periods of the artist's life are on view. There are also personal objects to be seen and information about his life is available. His painting evolves from the impressionism of his early years to the expressionism of his later years. His own particular perception of the Minorcan landscape and his use of colour led people to name him the Minorcan "Van Gogh".
